FIFA

1. The Organising Committee for the Olympic Football Tournaments (“FIFA Organising Committee”) appointed by the FIFA Executive Committee shall organise the Tournaments in accordance with the FIFA Statutes and the provisions contained in the Regulations of the Olympic Football Tournaments London 2012 (“Regulations”).
2. The FIFA Organising Committee may, if necessary, appoint a bureau and/or a sub-committee to deal with emergencies. Any decision taken by the bureau or the sub-committee shall come into effect immediately but shall be subject to confirmation by the plenary committee at its next meeting.
3. The responsibilities of the FIFA Organising Committee include:
 - a) approving all preparations for the Tournaments, in particular the choice of the stadiums;
 - b) approving the draw procedures and conducting the draw for the final competitions;
 - c) appointing match commissioners and, when necessary, assisting the confederations in appointing security officers or any other officials that may be required;
 - d) ensuring that the terms and conditions of articles 8-11 are respected;
 - e) deciding cases of abandoned matches and, if applicable, reporting the cases to the FIFA Disciplinary Committee;
 - f) adjudicating on protests and taking appropriate steps to verify their admissibility (cf. art. 37);

- g) replacing associations that have withdrawn from the Tournaments (cf. art. 12, par. 8);
 - h) settling cases of force majeure;
 - i) dealing with any other aspect of the Tournaments that is not the responsibility of another body under the terms of these Regulations or the FIFA Statutes.

 - c) approve at which matches doping tests will be conducted, based on proposals by the Anti-Doping Unit (cf. articles 33-35);
 - d) ensure that matches are played simultaneously when the situation demands this for sporting reasons.
 5. During the final competitions, the FIFA Organising Committee shall:
 - a) supervise general preparations, decide on the match system and the draw and form groups;
 - b) after consultation with LOCOG, fix the dates and venues for the matches, and choose stadiums and training grounds in good condition;
 - c) determine kick-off times;
 - d) choose the official football and the stipulated technical material;

e) appoint the referees, assistant referees, fourth officials and other relevant refereeing officials through the FIFA Referees Committee;

6. The decisions taken by the FIFA Organising Committee are final and binding.

2 Confederations

1. The preliminary competitions shall be organised by FIFA in collaboration with the confederations. The confederations shall establish a competition format, which shall require approval from FIFA.

2. The confederations may propose to FIFA that existing tournaments serve as the preliminary competitions for the Tournaments. In case FIFA accepts such a proposal, the respective confederations shall be solely responsible for the organisation of such preliminary tournaments.

3 Host associations/LOCOG

Host associations

1. For the duration of the preliminary competitions, the respective host associations shall be responsible for the safety and security of the guest teams.

LOCOG

2. The responsibilities of LOCOG during the final competitions shall include:

a) approving preparations for the Tournaments, in particular the choice of dates;

b) ensuring that order and safety are maintained, particularly inside the stadiums and in their immediate surroundings. It shall take adequate measures, if necessary by working closely with the relevant authorities, to prevent and restrain outbreaks of violence. LOCOG shall ensure the application of the FIFA Safety Regulations;

c) ensuring that order and safety are maintained around the headquarters and/or the Olympic Village and training grounds of the participating teams;

d) ensuring the presence of a sufficient number of ground staff and security stewards to guarantee safety. LOCOG is responsible for the behaviour of these staff while on duty;

e) providing suitable local transport from the official hotels to the stadiums where the matches shall be played and to the training grounds for the participating teams, match officials and delegates of FIFA;

f) providing an adequate number of seats and the necessary technical facilities for accredited local and foreign media representatives (television, press, radio and internet) as per the FIFA Media Guidelines;

g) preventing journalists, television and radio commentators and accredited film and television crews from entering the playing area at any time before, during or after the match. Only a limited number of photographers and television personnel required to operate the broadcasting equipment, all of them issued with special accreditation, may be admitted to the area between the boundaries of the field and spectators.

4 Participating member associations

1. Member associations taking part in the Tournaments shall undertake to comply fully with these Regulations and the decisions taken by the relevant FIFA bodies.

2. For the duration of the preliminary competitions and unless otherwise mentioned under art. 22, the responsibilities of each member association taking part in the preliminary competitions shall include:

- a) concluding – with reputable insurers and at their own cost – all necessary insurance in connection with the staging and organising of the matches, including third-party liability and spectator accident coverage (this provision applies only to host associations);
- b) guaranteeing law and order as well as safety at the venue and in the stadiums, thus ensuring the application of the FIFA Safety Regulations;
- c) complying with the guidelines and instructions issued by FIFA.

3. Unless otherwise mentioned hereinafter, the responsibilities of each association taking part in the Tournaments shall include:

- a) ensuring the good behaviour of all its officials, players, members of its delegation and other persons carrying out duties on its behalf throughout the Tournaments, in particular for the whole duration of their stay in the host country;
- b) ensuring the provision of adequate insurance to cover their delegation members and any other persons carrying out duties on their behalf against all risks, including but not limited to injury, accident, disease and travel, and in consideration of the relevant FIFA rules or regulations (if applicable);

c) paying for all expenses incurred by delegation members during the course of their stay in the host country and for any costs incurred by additional members of its delegation;

d) paying for any costs of extending the stay;

e) applying for any required visas in good time from the consulate or embassy of the host country (assistance from the host association is to be sought at the earliest opportunity, if necessary);

f) attending media conferences and other official media activities organised by FIFA or LOCOG.

4. Each association taking part in the final competition(s) shall ensure, as a condition of its participation, that every player, official or other member of its delegation completes the official entry form provided by FIFA and signs the required declarations.

General provisions

1. The associations affiliated to FIFA may participate in the Tournaments provided there is a National Olympic Committee (NOC) in their respective country which is already recognised or about to be recognised by the IOC.
2. One men's and one women's team from the host association will automatically qualify for the Tournaments' final competitions.
3. Entry into the Tournaments is free of charge.

Preliminary competitions

1. The associations shall confirm their participation by sending the official entry form, duly completed, and specifying whether the entry concerns their men's and/or women's team, to the FIFA general secretariat by the deadline set by FIFA.
2. Entries sent by fax shall be confirmed by sending the official entry form by post to the FIFA general secretariat.

 - a) observe these Regulations and, if applicable as per art. 2, par. 2 above, those drawn up by the respective confederation;
 - b) accept that all the administrative, disciplinary and refereeing matters relating to the preliminary competitions shall be dealt with by FIFA or, if applicable as per art. 2, par. 2 above, the respective confederation in compliance with the respective regulations.

c) In the event that a preliminary competition is organised by the confederation, as per art. 2, par. 2 above, FIFA shall not intervene unless associations not affiliated to a confederation are involved, or a confederation requests FIFA's intervention, or in any cases specifically provided for in the FIFA Disciplinary Code;

d) observe the principles of fair play.

Final competitions

1. The entry of the 16 men's and 12 women's Olympic teams that qualify for the final competitions shall be communicated to LOCOG in writing by their respective NOC.
2. In addition, associations entitled to take part in the final competitions shall confirm their participation to FIFA by sending the official entry form, duly completed, to the FIFA general secretariat by the deadline set by FIFA. Entry forms sent by fax shall be confirmed by sending the official form by post to the FIFA general secretariat.
3. Further to completing FIFA's official entry form, each NOC shall be required to complete LOCOG's final Sport Entry Forms and Eligibility Conditions forms for the purpose of official registration of the athletes for the London 2012 Olympic Games.
4. On entering the final competition(s), the participating associations shall automatically undertake to:
 - a) observe these Regulations and to ensure that the players, the officials and all other members of their delegation observe the same;
 - b) accept the decisions passed by the bodies and officials of FIFA under the terms of these Regulations;

c) accept all the arrangements made by LOCOG in agreement with FIFA;

d) accept any use, recording and broadcast of images of players and officials that may occur in connection with the final competition(s).

5. The FIFA Executive Committee has decided that the number of places available to each confederation in the final competitions shall be as follows:

6. The final list of 18 players and four alternate players, indicating the full surname(s), full first name(s), popular name, name on the shirt, date of birth, name and country of the club, position and passport number of each player, and seven officials (per team in the men's and women's Tournaments) shall be sent to LOCOG by midnight on 9 July 2012 (London local time) at the latest, with a copy to the FIFA general secretariat.

7. Associations with men's and/or women's teams participating in the Tournaments shall have their officials accredited by their respective NOC with an indication of the name and function of each person, as per the information contained in the official lists of players and officials.

8. The maximum number of officials in each delegation in the men's and women's final competitions shall be seven, including the head of delegation.

General provisions

1. Each association taking part in the Tournaments shall ensure the following when selecting its representative team(s):

a) all players shall hold the nationality of its country and be subject to its jurisdiction;

b) all players shall be eligible for selection in accordance with the FIFA Statutes and relevant FIFA regulations, in particular articles 15 to 18 of the Regulations Governing the Application of the FIFA Statutes.

2. Any team found guilty of fielding an ineligible player for whatever reason (non-compliance with the age restrictions, omission from the list of players as a potential participant in the match, etc.), shall forfeit the match in question. Victory and the resultant three points will be awarded to the opposing team as well as the score of 3-0, or greater, depending on the score of the match. The FIFA Disciplinary Committee is the competent body to decide in this regard.

Men's Tournament

3. All players participating in the preliminary and final competitions of the Tournament shall be born on or after 1 January 1989. However, a maximum of three male players who do not meet this age limit may also be included in the official list of players for the final competition.

Women's Tournament

4. There are no age restrictions for the players participating in the women's Tournament.

9 Preliminary competitions

1. 18 players (eleven selected players and seven substitutes) shall be eligible to take part in the matches. Two of these 18 players must be goalkeepers, with the number one shirt being reserved for one of them.
2. In the exceptional event that a group plays all of its qualifying matches at one venue (tournament style), up to 20 players (eleven selected players and nine substitutes) may be registered.
3. In compliance with art. 15 of the Regulations Governing the Application of the FIFA Statutes, a passport that explicitly states the day, month and year of birth shall be the only document considered to be valid proof of a player's identity, nationality and age. A player shall not be entitled to play unless he can produce a valid passport. Identity cards shall not be accepted as a valid means of identification.
4. All players, officials and other delegation members must comply with the reasonable requirements by the organising bodies of the respective preliminary competition.

10 Final competitions

1. If an association's men's or women's team qualifies for its respective final competition, it shall send FIFA a provisional list of players (three of whom shall be goalkeepers) by the date specified in the relevant circular.
2. This provisional list shall be accompanied by copies of the birth certificate and passport of each player appearing on the list. All this documentation shall reach the FIFA general secretariat by the deadline set in the relevant circular.

3. Each association that qualifies for the final competition(s) may nominate 18 players per team, numbered from one to 18, with the numbers one and 18 being reserved exclusively for the goalkeepers.

4. In addition to the 18 players officially enrolled for the final competition(s), each association is allowed, if deemed necessary, to select a maximum of four alternate players per team, who shall appear in the provisional and the final list of players and officials, but shall not be officially enrolled for the competition and therefore shall not be allowed to play. The following applies to these four alternate players:

- a) They are not among the 18 players officially enrolled in their team's list of players and officials. They are not allowed to compete in the final competition unless the provisions of art. 10, par. 4c) apply;
- b) The purpose of selecting alternate players is, in principle, to have them available should one or more of the officially enrolled players sustain an injury or in the case of force majeure once the final competitions have started;
- c) Any request to change the status of an alternate player in order to enrol him in the official list of 18 players shall be made following approval and confirmation from the relevant FIFA committees and by following the LOCOG Procedure regarding Emergency Medical Replacement. Once the replacement request has been approved by all parties, the relevant form shall be submitted in writing to the LOCOG Accreditation Centre(s) by the Chef de Mission of the respective NOC or other official NOC representative authorised to do so by the IOC Athlete Replacement Policy;
- d) The alternate players shall be numbered 19 to 22, with the number 22 being reserved for the alternate goalkeeper;
- e) All costs incurred by any alternate player (airfares, board, lodging, etc.) shall be borne by either the relevant association or the respective NOC.

5. The numbers on the back of the shirts shall correspond to the numbers indicated on the official team list, which shall be submitted to the FIFA general secretariat, together with copies of the players' passports, using the official form, by 9 July 2012. This list of 18 players and four alternate players shall show the full surname(s), all first names, popular name, name on the shirt, date of birth, passport number, club and country of the club, and position of each player. Only these 18 players (except in cases of force majeure recognised by the FIFA Organising Committee, cf. art. 10, par. 4b)) shall be permitted to compete in the final competitions.

6. All 18 players shall be named in the starting list for each match (eleven selected players and seven substitutes). Up to a maximum of three of these substitutes may take the place of the selected players at any time during the match. None of the four alternate players, unless their status has been changed in accordance with art. 10, par. 4c) and they are thus officially enrolled in the official list of 18 players, may be included in the starting list for a match or be seated on the substitutes' bench during a match.

7. No more than 14 people (seven substitutes and seven officials) shall be allowed to sit on the substitutes' bench.

8. Before the start of the final competitions, all players listed must prove their identity, nationality and age by producing both their legally valid individual passport with photograph (stating day, month and year of birth) and their birth certificate. Any player who fails to submit these documents shall not be allowed to take part in the respective final competition.

9. If any discrepancies are detected in a player's date of birth, the FIFA Organising Committee shall apply the provisions determined by the FIFA Executive Committee for such cases and decide the consequences that such a violation shall have on the rest of the competition. The FIFA Organising Committee shall then forward the file to the FIFA Disciplinary Committee.

10. The official lists of 18 players and four alternate players shall be published by the FIFA general secretariat.

11 Accreditation

1. LOCOG shall issue each player and official with an official accreditation bearing a photograph.

2. Only players in possession of valid accreditation may play in the final competitions. The accreditation shall always be available for inspection by FIFA officials (e.g. referees, general coordinators, etc.).

3. Each participating association shall receive 25 accreditations per team (18 for the listed players and seven for officials). An association may request up to a maximum of four extra accreditations for its alternate players. The recipients of the additional accreditations shall appear on the official list of players and officials, but shall not be officially enrolled for the final competitions (unless their status has been changed in accordance with art. 10, par. 4c) and they are thus officially enrolled in the official list of 18 players) and their access to zones and Olympic venues shall be limited.

12 Withdrawal

1. All associations that enter a team undertake to play all of their matches.

2. If a team refuses to play in the final competition, it shall be disqualified, unless art. 44 of these Regulations applies.

3. Any association that withdraws up to 30 days before the start of the preliminary competition shall be fined CHF 5,000.

4. Any association that withdraws less than 30 days before the start of the preliminary competition shall be fined CHF 7,500.

5. Any association that withdraws after the start of the preliminary competition shall be fined CHF 10,000.

6. Any association whose team withdraws up to 30 days before the start of the final competition shall be fined CHF 15,000.
7. Any association whose team withdraws less than 30 days before the start of the final competition shall be fined CHF 20,000.
8. Any association that withdraws prior to or during the preliminary competition may be replaced by another association. The FIFA Organising Committee shall decide on the matter.
9. Depending on circumstances and the decision of the FIFA Organising Committee, any association that withdraws a team may be ordered to reimburse FIFA, the relevant association(s), the confederation(s) concerned and/or LOCOG for any expenses the latter have already incurred as a result of their involvement, and may also be obliged to pay compensation for any damages or losses incurred.
10. Depending on the circumstances of the withdrawal, the FIFA Disciplinary Committee may also impose additional sanctions, including the right to ban the association concerned from subsequent Tournaments and from any other FIFA competition.
11. The FIFA Organising Committee shall determine the amount of damages for financial loss upon receipt of a substantiated and documented request from the respective associations, the confederations concerned and/or LOCOG.
12. If, through the fault of any association, a match cannot take place or be played in its entirety, the FIFA Organising Committee shall declare the match forfeited (awarding victory and the resultant three points to the opposing team as well as the score of 3-0 or greater, depending on the score of the match at the time of abandonment) and forward the file to the FIFA Disciplinary Committee.
13. No appeals may be lodged against these decisions, which are final and binding. Furthermore, the association responsible shall forfeit any claim to financial remuneration from FIFA.
14. The FIFA Organising Committee shall take whatever action is deemed necessary in the case of force majeure.

13 Laws of the Game

1. All matches shall be played in accordance with the Laws of the Game laid down by the International Football Association Board and published by FIFA.
2. In the case of any discrepancy in the interpretation of the Laws of the Game, the English version shall be authoritative.
3. In the case of a match being abandoned as a result of force majeure for any reason after it has already kicked off, the match shall recommence with the same score at the minute at which play was interrupted rather than being replayed in full.

The following principles shall apply to the recommencement of the match:

- a) the match shall recommence with the same players on the pitch and substitutes available as when the match was initially abandoned;
- b) no additional substitutes may be added to the list of players on the team sheet;
- c) the teams can make only the number of substitutions to which they were still entitled when the match was abandoned;
- d) players sent off during the abandoned match cannot be replaced;
- e) any sanctions imposed before the match was abandoned remain valid for the remainder of the match;
- f) the kick-off time, date (foreseen for the following day) and location shall be decided by the FIFA Organising Committee;
- g) any matters requiring further decision shall be taken by the FIFA Organising Committee.

14 Stadiums, fields of play, clocks, displays

1. All associations organising matches in the preliminary competitions shall ensure that the stadiums and facilities in which the matches take place fulfil the requirements set out in the Football Stadiums: Technical recommendations and requirements publication and comply with the safety and security standards and other FIFA regulations, guidelines and instructions for international matches. The fields of play, accessory equipment and facilities shall be in optimum condition and comply with the Laws of the Game.

2. Periodic safety checks for the benefit of spectators, players and officials shall be carried out on the stadiums selected for matches in the preliminary competitions by the authorities responsible. If required, the associations shall provide FIFA with a copy of the relevant safety certificate, which should not be more than two years old.

3. Only FIFA-inspected stadiums that successfully hosted the preliminary competition for the 2010 FIFA World Cup South Africa™ or stadiums that have been inspected by FIFA and/or the confederation after the completion of the aforementioned preliminary competition may be selected for the preliminary competitions of the Olympic Football Tournaments. Should a stadium no longer comply with FIFA standards, the FIFA Organising Committee may, in consultation with the FIFA Stadium and Security Committee, reject the selection of the stadium concerned. Brand-new stadiums are to be inspected prior to use, and the application for final inspection and subsequent use of the facilities shall be filed with the FIFA general secretariat at least six months prior to the match concerned. Refurbished stadiums are also to be inspected prior to use, and the application for final inspection and subsequent use of the facilities shall be filed with the FIFA general secretariat at least nine months prior to the match concerned.

4. As per art. 8, par. 1 of the FIFA Safety Regulations, the preliminary and final competition matches may only be played in all-seater stadiums. If the only stadiums available have both seating and standing areas, the standing areas shall remain vacant.

5. Matches may be played on natural or artificial surfaces. Where artificial surfaces are used, the surface must meet the requirements of the FIFA Quality Concept for Football Turf or the International Artificial Turf Standard, unless dispensation is given by FIFA. In this case, the visiting team is entitled to have two training sessions before the match, if requested.

6. If a stadium has a retractable roof, the FIFA match commissioner, in consultation with the referees and the two teams' officials, shall decide before the match whether the roof shall be open or closed during the match. This decision must be announced at the latest at the organisational meeting on the morning of the match, although it may subsequently be modified prior to kick-off in the event of a sudden and significant change in the weather conditions. As a general rule, if the match starts with the roof closed, it shall remain closed for the entire duration of the match. If the match starts with the roof open and there is a serious deterioration of the weather conditions, only the referee has the authority to order its closure during the match. In such an event, the roof is to remain closed until the end of the match.

7. Clocks in the stadium showing the length of time played may run during the match, provided that they are stopped at the end of normal playing time in each half, i.e. after 45 minutes and 90 minutes respectively. This stipulation shall also apply if extra time is played, i.e. after 15 minutes of each half.

8. At the end of the two periods of normal playing time (45 and 90 minutes), the referee shall indicate to the fourth official, either orally or by gesturing with his hands, the number of minutes that he has decided to allow for time lost. This also applies to the two periods of 15 minutes of extra time. Each allowance for time lost shall be shown on the panels or electronic display boards of the fourth official.

9. Panels or electronic display boards, numbered on both sides for clarity, shall be used to indicate the substitution of players and the number of minutes to be allowed for time lost. All panels and electronic display boards used for the duration of the preliminary competitions must be approved by FIFA at the latest ten days before the first match.

10. The use of giant screens must be in compliance with the respective FIFA regulations.

11. Smoking is not permitted in the technical area during matches.

12. The stadiums selected by LOCOG for the final competitions shall be subject to the approval of the FIFA Organising Committee.

15 Footballs

1. The footballs chosen for the Tournaments shall conform with the provisions of the Laws of the Game and the FIFA Equipment Regulations. They shall bear one of the following three designations: the official "FIFA APPROVED" logo, the official "FIFA INSPECTED" logo or the "INTERNATIONAL MATCH BALL STANDARD" reference.

2. The footballs for the preliminary competitions shall be supplied by the respective host association. The visiting team shall be supplied with the same footballs in sufficient numbers for its training session(s) at the match stadium.

3. The footballs for the final competitions shall be selected by FIFA and supplied by LOCOG.

16 Duration of matches

1. Each match shall last 90 minutes, comprising two periods of 45 minutes, with an interval of 15 minutes.

2. If, in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations, extra time is required at the end of normal playing time, it shall always consist of two periods of 15 minutes, with an interval of five minutes at the end of normal playing time, but not between the two periods of extra time. The players shall remain on the pitch during both of these intervals.

3. If the score is still level at the end of extra time, kicks from the penalty mark shall be taken to determine the winner, in accordance with the procedure specified in the Laws of the Game.

17 Referees and match officials

1. The referees, assistant referees, fourth officials and other relevant refereeing officials for the preliminary competitions and the final competitions shall be selected from the applicable FIFA international list of referees and assistant referees. They shall not represent associations playing in the group in question.

2. A referee, two assistant referees, a fourth official and other relevant refereeing officials shall be appointed by the confederations, in consultation with FIFA, for each match in the preliminary competitions and by the FIFA Referees Committee for each match in the final competitions.

3. The decisions of the FIFA Referees Committee are final and not subject to appeal.

4. After each match, the referee shall complete and sign an official FIFA report form. The referee shall hand it over to the FIFA general coordinator at the stadium immediately after the match.

5. On the report form, the referee shall note all occurrences before, during and after the match in as much detail as possible, such as:

- a) misconduct of players leading to caution or expulsion;
- b) unsporting behaviour by officials, supporters or any other person acting on behalf of an association at the match;
- c) any other incidents.

6. The match officials shall be given the opportunity to use adequate training facilities.

Equipment

- 1. The participating associations shall undertake to comply with the FIFA Equipment Regulations with regard to all issues concerning colours, numbering and the printing of names on the players' equipment, for the preliminary and final competitions.
- 2. During the final competitions of the Tournaments, unlike other FIFA competitions, the IOC Olympic Charter forms the basis for the acceptance of the equipment of the participating associations. The latter represent their respective NOCs during the London 2012 Olympic Games and shall therefore comply fully with IOC guidelines.
- 3. Rule 51 and the Bye-Law to Rule 51 of the Olympic Charter (cf. Appendix A) describe the specifications of manufacturer identification allowed on the players' kit and on other clothing worn by substitutes and officials in the stadium and training areas. This ruling takes precedence over the FIFA Equipment Regulations in force in terms of advertising on sports equipment and manufacturers' identification for the duration of the final competitions.
- 4. Players and officials shall not display political, religious, commercial or personal messages or slogans in any language or form on their playing or team kits, equipment (including kit bags, beverage containers, medical bags, etc.) or body for the duration of their time in the stadiums, training grounds or other areas where accreditation is required to gain access.

- 5. In the preliminary competitions, each team shall have an official and reserve team kit, which shall be declared on the team colour form. The colours of the reserve team kit (shirt, shorts and socks) shall be noticeably different from and contrast with the colours of the official team kit (shirt, shorts and socks). The reserve team kit, including the goalkeeper kit, shall also be taken to every match. Only these colours may be worn at matches.
- 6. In the preliminary competitions, each team shall wear its official team kit as declared on the official colour form. If the two teams' colours might cause confusion, the host team will be entitled to wear its official team kit and the visiting team will use its reserve team kit or, if necessary, a combination of the official and the reserve team kits.
- 7. As per art. 9, par. 1 of these Regulations, each player shall wear a number between 1 and 18 on his team shirt. It is not compulsory for the name of the player to appear on the shirt in the preliminary competitions. The colours of the numbering and names of the players shall be in accordance with the provisions laid down in the FIFA Equipment Regulations.
- 8. In the case of contradictions between the IOC and FIFA regulations in connection with the final competitions, the IOC regulations shall prevail.

19 Rights of the participating associations

In the absence of any written agreement with FIFA to the contrary, or as set out herein, no participating association shall have any promotional, advertising, marketing, broadcasting or other commercial exploitation rights in relation to:

- a) the final competitions of the Tournaments;
- b) any event held under the auspices of FIFA;
- c) FIFA or the IOC itself.

20 FIFA marks

1. FIFA owns and controls all intellectual property rights relating to its name, marks, logos, emblems, cup design and other such marks relating to the Tournaments on a worldwide basis, including but not limited to:

- a) the name "FIFA";
- b) the FIFA Design Emblem.

2. The use of these marks is subject to FIFA's prior written approval and further regulations and guidelines issued by FIFA. The participating associations shall not use FIFA's marks without obtaining such written approval.

3. The participating associations shall refrain from the development, use or registration of any name, logo, trade mark, indicia, brand name, symbol, service mark or other mark (whether registered or unregistered) or designation which may be inferred by the public as identifying with FIFA or the Tournaments, including the words "World Cup", "FIFA" (or any other term used in any language to identify with the Tournaments), or the development, use or registration of any dates in connection with the name of the host country, venues or host city (or cities) of the final competitions of the Tournaments, or any similar indicia or derivation of such terms or dates in any language. The participating associations shall further ensure that their commercial affiliates comply with the provisions of this section, and that such commercial affiliates do not engage in any activity which might give rise to the impression that such commercial affiliates are officially associated with the Tournaments.

4. The participating associations shall not oppose any of the trade mark or copyright applications filed by FIFA or its affiliates, nominees or licensees in respect of FIFA's marks. The participating associations shall not in any way challenge, or apply for any copyright, trade mark, or patent protection, or domain name registration (whether in respect of, or in relation to FIFA's marks or otherwise) which would adversely affect the relevant owner's proprietary interests in FIFA's marks, or assist any other person to do so.

21 Rights of the IOC

All commercial rights in relation to the final competitions (marketing and TV rights) are regulated by the IOC.

22 General provisions (venues, kick-off times, training sessions and FIFA protocol)

1. The preliminary competitions shall take place between August 2010 and the end of March 2012. Any play-off matches shall be contested by April 2012 at the latest.
2. The FIFA Organising Committee, in cooperation with the confederations, shall form groups and/or sub-groups for the men's and women's preliminary competitions by seeding and drawing lots, whilst taking sporting, geographical and economic factors into consideration as far as possible. All decisions made by the FIFA Organising Committee regarding the group formation shall be final and not subject to appeal. In the case of an association withdrawing from a preliminary competition, the FIFA Organising Committee may change groups in accordance with the above.
3. The dates and, subject to the host association's compliance with art. 14, the venues of the matches of the men's and women's preliminary competitions shall be fixed by the confederations, upon consultation with the associations concerned and subject to the approval of the FIFA Organising Committee. The associations concerned shall also agree upon financial arrangements (cf. art. 39).
4. The venues of the matches in the preliminary competitions shall be fixed by the host association concerned, in accordance with art. 14, par. 3 of these Regulations. The opponents and the FIFA general secretariat shall be notified in written form by the host association at least three months before the match in question is due to be played. As a general rule, the venue is to be located at a maximum distance of 150km, or a maximum of a two-hour drive, from the nearest international airport. If the associations cannot agree on the venues of the matches in the preliminary competitions, the FIFA Organising Committee will take the final decision.

5. The host association shall inform its opponents and the FIFA general secretariat of the kick-off time at least sixty days before the match in question is due to be played. FIFA may consider founded and documented reasons for a change of kick-off time after this deadline, but in no event less than seven days prior to the match.
6. If any association fails to agree on the dates, venues, kick-off times or the system of play (art. 23, par. 1) of the matches in the men's and women's preliminary competitions, the FIFA Organising Committee shall take the final decisions.
7. The associations shall arrange for their representative teams to arrive at the venue no later than the evening before the date the match is due to be played. The host association shall be informed of the travel itinerary, and provisions for the visas by the visiting association shall have been made in accordance with art. 4, par. 3e).
8. On the day before the match and weather conditions permitting, the visiting team is entitled to have one training session of 45 minutes on the pitch where the match is due to take place. Prior to their arrival in the host country, the exact time and duration of the training session shall be mutually agreed, and then confirmed in writing by the host association. In the event of adverse weather conditions, the FIFA match commissioner may cancel the training session. In this case, the visiting team shall be allowed to inspect the pitch wearing training shoes. Should both teams wish to train at the same time, the visiting team shall be given priority.
9. If the host association considers the pitch to be unfit for play, it shall inform the FIFA general secretariat immediately, and the visiting association and the match officials before their departure. If the host association fails to do so, it will be obliged to cover all the expenses incurred for the travel, board and lodging of all parties.

10. If there is any doubt regarding the condition of the pitch once the visiting association has already left to play the match, the referee shall decide whether the pitch is playable or not. If the referee declares the pitch unplayable, the procedure to be followed is described in par. 11 below.

11. If a match is interrupted before the completion of normal playing time or extra time because of extreme weather or for reasons outside the control of the host association, a full-time replay lasting 90 minutes shall be arranged the following day, thus avoiding considerable extra expense by the visiting association. If it is still impossible to play the next day for the same reasons, the match may be postponed by another day, provided that both associations agree. If the match can still not be played on the third day, the expenses incurred by the visiting association shall be split between the two associations. The FIFA Organising Committee will take any other necessary decisions related to such a replay.

12. The matches may be played in daylight or under floodlight. Matches played at night may be played only at venues where the floodlighting installations meet the minimum lighting requirements laid down by FIFA, i.e. that the whole pitch shall be evenly lit to at least 1,200 lux. An emergency power generator shall also be available which, in the event of a power failure, guarantees at least two-thirds of the aforementioned intensity of light for the whole pitch. The FIFA Organising Committee is entitled to grant exceptions, which shall be final.

13. During the preliminary competitions, the FIFA flag, the FIFA Fair Play flag, the flag of the confederation and of both competing associations shall be flown inside the stadium at every match.

14. Following FIFA's protocol with the flags on the pitch, the FIFA anthem shall be played when the teams enter the field. The national anthems of the two participating teams shall be played after the teams have lined up.

23 Competition system

1. The matches in the men's and women's preliminary competitions shall be played in accordance with one of the following three formats:

- a) in groups composed of several teams on a home-and-away basis, with three points for a win, one point for a draw, and none for a defeat (league format);
- b) one home and one away match per team (knockout format);
- c) in the form of a tournament in one of the participating countries or in a neutral country, by way of exception and only with the authorisation of the FIFA Organising Committee.

When matches are played in accordance with format a) or b) above, home matches may not be played in another country without the express permission of the FIFA Organising Committee.

2. In the league format, the ranking in each group shall be determined as follows:

- a) greatest number of points obtained in all group matches;
- b) goal difference in all group matches;
- c) greatest number of goals scored in all group matches. If two or more teams are equal on the basis of the above three criteria, their rankings shall be determined as follows:
- d) greater number of points obtained in all group matches between the teams concerned;

- e) goal difference resulting from the group matches between the teams concerned;
- f) greater number of goals scored in all group matches between the teams concerned;
- g) play-off match on neutral ground (with extra time and penalty kicks, if necessary).

Exceptionally, and with the prior approval of the FIFA Organising Committee, such play-off match may also be held in one of the countries concerned.

3. In the knockout format, both teams shall play one home and one away match, the sequence of which shall be determined by lots drawn by the FIFA Organising Committee (in the event that the relevant confederation has not already done so). The team scoring the greater aggregate of goals in the two matches qualifies for the next round. If both teams score the same number of goals over the two legs, the away goals shall be counted as double. If the number of away goals scored is also equal, extra time of two periods of 15 minutes each shall be played at the end of the second leg. The extra-time period is an integral part of the second-leg match. Thus, if no goals are scored in extra time, kicks from the penalty mark, in accordance with the Laws of the Game, shall be taken to determine the winner.

24 General provisions

- 2. The following number of teams shall compete in the final competitions:

- 4. The matches may be played in daylight or under floodlights. Evening matches may only be played at venues where the floodlighting installations meet the minimum lighting requirements specified by FIFA.

- 6. Weather and match schedule permitting, the teams shall be entitled to a training session of a maximum of 45 minutes before the team's first match at the stadium where they are scheduled to play – with the exception of the stadium of the gold medal matches, if it is an Olympic venue that is unavailable in the days preceding the gold medal matches due to other Olympic events. If the pitch is not in good condition, FIFA may shorten or cancel the training session.

7. The teams shall be entitled to warm up on the pitch before the match, weather permitting.

8. LOCOG shall make at least one training ground available for each participating team.

9. These training grounds shall be available for use at least five days before the first match at each venue. The teams shall only use these officially designated training grounds.

10. The football grounds reserved for the matches shall not be used for any other matches or events from 30 days prior to the final competitions until the competitions are completed, unless the FIFA Organising Committee gives special permission.

11. During the final competitions, the following procedures shall be carried out in order to ensure that FIFA match protocol is respected:

- a) the FIFA anthem shall be played while the two teams are entering the field;
- b) the national anthems of the two teams shall be played after the line-up;

39 Preliminary competitions

1. All revenue from the exploitation of the commercial rights (advertising, TV and radio broadcasts, film and videos) for the preliminary competition matches belongs to the host association and, with the income from ticket sales, form the gross receipts. The owners of the rights are obliged to provide FIFA, upon request and free of charge, with 15 minutes of action footage per match.

FIFA shall use this footage free of charge to promote its fair play campaign and football worldwide. FIFA is also entitled to use the footage for its own electronic data carriers or any such carriers produced on FIFA's behalf, and for its own multimedia database.

2. The following deductions shall be made from the gross receipts:

a) a levy of two per cent (minimum CHF 1,000) in favour of FIFA and the levy due to the confederations in accordance with the confederations' statutes and regulations after deduction of the taxes mentioned in art. 39, par. 2b). The levies due to FIFA and the confederations shall be paid within 60 days after the match at the official rate of exchange on the day the payment is due;

b) state, provincial and municipal taxes and any charges for the hire of the stadium, the combined total of which shall not exceed 30% (cf. art. 10, par. 3 of the Regulations Governing the Application of the FIFA Statutes).

3. The participating associations shall settle the other costs among themselves in mutual agreement. If no agreement resulting in a concluded formal written contract between the two associations is reached, the following provisions shall apply:

b) the host association shall pay for the domestic transport in the host country of the visiting association's delegation for a maximum of 40 persons for a duration depending on flight connections;

It shall set aside an appropriate number – to be fixed by mutual agreement and in writing – of complimentary and purchasable tickets for the visiting association. At least five representatives from the visiting association shall be seated in the VIP box. The visiting association shall inform the host association no later than five days before the match and in writing of the total number of tickets that will not be used and thus returned upon arrival at the venue. Appendix B). Since presenting the Fair Play Trophies in the stadium at the end of the men's and women's gold medal matches would contravene Olympic protocol, FIFA shall find another non-Olympic occasion to make these presentations.

2. Members of the FIFA delegation shall only gain access to the Federation Stand with a valid accreditation.

The customary FIFA policy of allocating complimentary tickets to the teams for their matches in the group or knockout stages does not apply. Should an association wish to purchase additional tickets for its own or other matches, requests should be addressed to its NOC, the latter being solely responsible for coordinating any additional ticket requests for all sports disciplines.

44 Final provisions

1. Matters not provided for in these Regulations and cases of force majeure shall be decided by the FIFA Organising Committee. All decisions shall be final.

6. In case of discrepancy in the interpretation of the different language versions of these Regulations and/or any other rules referred to within the Regulations, the English text shall be authoritative.
7. The copyright in these Regulations and in the fixture lists drawn up in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations are the property of FIFA.

1.6 In case of special rules adopted by an International Sports Federation, exceptions to the rules mentioned above may be approved by the IOC Executive Board. Any violation of the provisions of the present clause shall result in disqualification or withdrawal of the accreditation of the person concerned. The decisions of the IOC Executive Board regarding this matter shall be final.

The numbers worn by competitors may not display publicity of any kind and must bear the Olympic emblem of the OCOG¹.

2. To be valid, all contracts of the OCOG containing any element whatsoever of advertising, including the right or licence to use the emblem or the mascot of the Olympic Games, must be in conformity with the Olympic Charter and must comply with the instructions given by the IOC Executive Board. The same shall apply to contracts relating to the timing equipment, the scoreboards, and to the injection of any identification signal in television programmes. Breaches of these regulations come under the authority of the IOC Executive Board.

3. Any mascot created for the Olympic Games shall be considered to be an Olympic emblem, the design of which must be submitted by the OCOG to the IOC Executive Board for its approval. Such mascot may not be used for commercial purposes in the country of an NOC without the latter's prior written approval.

4. The OCOG shall ensure the protection of the property of the emblem and the mascot of the Olympic Games for the benefit of the IOC, both nationally and internationally. However, the OCOG alone and, after the OCOG has been wound up, the NOC of the host country, may exploit such emblem and mascot, as well as other marks, designs, badges, posters, objects and documents connected with the Olympic Games during their preparation, during their holding and during a period terminating not later than the end of the calendar year during which such Olympic Games are held. Upon the expiry of this period, all rights in or relating to such emblem, mascot and other marks, designs, badges, posters, objects and documents shall thereafter belong entirely to the IOC. The OCOG and/or the NOC, as the case may be and to the extent necessary, shall act as trustees (in a fiduciary capacity) for the sole benefit of the IOC in this respect.

5. The provisions of this bye-law also apply, mutatis mutandis, to all contracts signed by the organising committee of a Session or an Olympic Congress.

6. The uniforms of the competitors and of all persons holding an official position may include the flag or Olympic emblem of their NOC or, with the consent of the OCOG, the OCOG Olympic emblem. The IF officials may wear the uniform and the emblem of their federations.

7. The identification on all technical gear, installations and other apparatus, which are neither worn nor used by athletes or other participants at the Olympic Games, including timing equipment and scoreboards, may on no account be larger than 1/10th of the height of the equipment, installation or apparatus in question, and shall not be greater than 10cm high.

8. The word "identification" means the normal display of the name, designation, trademark, logo or any other distinctive sign of the manufacturer of the item, appearing not more than once per item.

9. The OCOG, all participants and all other persons accredited at the Olympic Games and all other persons or parties concerned shall comply with the manuals, guides, or guidelines, and all other instructions of the IOC Executive Board, in respect of all matters subject to Rule 51 and this Bye-law.

52 Protocol

1. Throughout the period of the Olympic Games, the IOC Executive Board alone has the authority to determine the protocol applicable at all sites and venues placed under the responsibility of the OCOG.

2. At all Olympic functions and events during the Olympic Games, the members, Honorary President, honorary members and honour members of the IOC in their order of seniority, the President, Honorary President and Vice-Presidents leading, take precedence followed by the members of the OCOG, the Presidents of the IFs and the Presidents of the NOCs.

3. The OCOG, the IFs, the NOCs and all other persons accredited at the Olympic Games, in any capacity whatsoever, shall comply with the IOC Protocol Guide, and all other instructions of the IOC Executive Board, in respect of all matters subject to this Rule.

* In the event of any divergence in the wording of the different language versions, the French text of Rule 51 and its bye-law as well as Rule 52 of the Olympic Charter in force as of 7 July 2007 shall be authoritative.

Fair play contest regulations

I. General provisions

1. As part of its campaign to promote fair play, FIFA regularly holds a fair play contest during its championships, based on an appraisal of the teams' conduct by a FIFA delegate such as the match commissioner, a member of the Technical Study Group or a member of a standing committee.
2. The objective of fair play activities is to foster a sporting spirit among players, team officials and spectators, thereby heightening the fans' enjoyment of the game.
3. At the final whistle of each game, the delegate shall complete the appropriate fair play form after consulting the referee and the referee assessor.
4. Every match in the final competitions shall be taken into account.
5. The Organising Committee shall compile and publish the ranking at the end of the final competitions. Its decision is final.
6. FIFA shall award the team that wins the fair play contest a trophy, 25 medals and a diploma, all of which the team can keep permanently. The team shall also receive a voucher valued at USD 10,000, which shall be exchanged for a supply of football equipment to be used exclusively for youth development.

II. Assessment criteria

7. The assessment form contains six criteria by which the teams' fair play performance shall be judged, stressing the positive aspects rather than negative. As a general rule, maximum points shall only be awarded if the team concerned displays a positive attitude.

8. Red and yellow cards shall be deducted from a maximum of 10 points:

- first yellow card: minus 1 point
- yellow/red card: minus 3 points
- direct red card: minus 3 points
- yellow card & direct red card: minus 4 points

Red and yellow cards are the only criteria entailing minus points.

9. Positive play

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 10 points

The aim of this criterion is to reward attacking and attractive play, and shall take into account such aspects as:

a) Positive aspects

- attacking rather than defensive tactics;
- speeding up the game;
- constantly attempting to score even if the desired result (e.g. qualification) has already been achieved.

b) Negative aspects

- tactics that rely on rough play;
- play-acting;
- time-wasting, etc.

As a general rule, positive play is correlated with the number of scoring chances created and the number of goals scored.

10. Respect towards the opponent

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 5 points

Players are expected to respect the Laws of the Game, the competition regulations and opponents, etc.

When assessing the players' behaviour towards the opponents, duplication of the judgment for red and yellow cards should be avoided. However, the delegate may take into account the seriousness of the offences punished by cards as well as those overlooked by the referee.

Assessment shall be based on positive attitudes (e.g. helping an injured opponent) rather than on infringements. Behaviour that is basically faultless but does not outwardly show any particularly positive attitude or gesture towards opponents shall be given a mark of 4 rather than 5.

11. Respect towards the referee/match officials

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 5 points

Players are expected to respect the match officials and the decisions they take. A positive attitude towards the referee, including acceptance of decisions without protest, shall be rewarded. Behaviour that is basically faultless but does not outwardly show any particularly positive attitude or gesture towards the match officials shall be given a mark of 4 rather than 5.

12. Behaviour of the team officials

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 5 points

Coaches and other team officials are expected to encourage the sporting, technical, tactical and ethical standards of their team and to direct the players to behave in accordance with the principles of fair play.

Both positive and negative factors in the behaviour of the team officials shall be included in the assessment, e.g. whether they calm down angry players or how they accept the referee's decisions. Inciting or provoking players shall be rated negatively.

Cooperation with the media shall also be a factor in the assessment. Behaviour that is faultless but does not outwardly show any particularly positive attitude or gesture shall be given a mark of 4 rather than 5.

13. Behaviour of the crowd

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 5 points

The crowd is considered to be an integral part of a football match. Fans can contribute to the positive atmosphere of a match by encouraging their team by cheering and singing, etc. in the spirit of fair play.

Spectators are, however, expected to respect the opponents and the referee.

They should appreciate the opponents' performance regardless of the result and in no way intimidate or frighten opponents, the referee or the opponents' supporters.

The maximum number of points (5) may only be awarded if all these requirements have been satisfied, especially as regards creating a positive atmosphere.

This criterion is applicable only if a substantial number of fans of the team concerned are present. If the number of fans is negligible, "n.a." (not applicable) shall be entered under this item.

III. Final assessment

14. The final assessment of a team is obtained as follows:

a) the points awarded are added together, e.g. for team A:

$$8 + 7 + 3 + 4 + 5 + 4 = 31;$$

b) this total is divided by the maximum number of points possible (40):

$$31 \div 40 = 0.775;$$

c) this figure is multiplied by 1,000: $0.775 \times 1,000 = 775$.

If, however, the number of fans supporting a certain team is negligible and the criterion "behaviour of the crowd" consequently disregarded („n.a." – cf. §13 above), the maximum number of points obtainable shall be 35.

Thus the final assessment would be attained as follows:

a) the points awarded are added together, e.g. for team B:

$$7 + 8 + 2 + 5 + 2 = 24;$$

b) this total is divided by the maximum number of points possible (35) :

$$24 \div 35 = 0.686;$$

c) this figure is multiplied by 1,000: $0.686 \times 1,000 = 686$.

The overall assessment of a team during the final competitions shall be calculated by adding the points attained at each match and dividing this figure by the number of matches played.

15. Teams that are eliminated after the group stage of the final competitions shall be excluded from the fair play contest.

16. In addition to making the assessment, members of FIFA may give a short oral account of the teams' fair play performance to explain the positive and negative factors, which form the basis of their assessment. The account may also point out any outstanding gestures of fair play from a player, official, referee or any other person. However, no additional points shall be awarded for this reason.

17. These regulations have been approved by the Organising Committee for the Olympic Football Tournaments.
